The debate was more intended to impress upon Speaker Carlisle the feelings of Willis and O'Neill on the education and labor question than anything else, and was [illegible] that both of these gentlemen want places on those committees. Although the Chinese bill of the Pacific coast delegation properly belongs to the foreign affairs committee it may be sent to the new committee on labor. It is interesting to know that both Willis and O'Neill are friends of the measure [illegible] by the Pacific coast delegation.

GIBSON'S RESOLUTION TO ABROGATE THE RECIPROCITY TREATY.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—[Special.]—Senator Gibson of Louisiana yesterday introduced in the senate a resolution looking to abrogation of the reciprocity treaty between the United States and the Sandwich islands. Coming as this resolution does, from the Louisiana senator, who are also democrats, it has an important bearing. The treaty was concluded June 3, 1875, and may be terminated twelve months after either party gives notice of a desire to conclude the reciprocity relations. Senator Gibson, as his resolution shows, is in favor of stopping the flow of free Sandwich island sugar into San Francisco, presumably to protect the sugar interest of southern states. There has been a great deal of talk among tariff reformers surrounding Speaker Carlisle recently, that looks towards a bill abolishing the duty on sugar, but before such a sentiment has developed [illegible] to come this resolution demanding the repeal of the treaty, which gives the very commercial [illegible] free trade men profess to desire. The movement of Gibson seems to portend that if the democrats attempt to abolish the duty on sugar they will have a fight on hand likely to set a large portion of the party against them at the outset. Besides uncolored sugar, the Sandwich island treaty admitted into the United States, free of duty, rice, vegetables, [illegible] hides, skins, rice, syrups, [illegible] seeds, plants, shrub trees and tallow. The resolution instructs the president to notify the king of the Sandwich islands that he is desirous of terminating the treaty within twelve months.

COMMITTEE PREDICTIONS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—A number of representatives who profess to have knowledge of Speaker Carlisle's intentions, give the supposed make-up of the ways and means committee today as follows: Morrison, Tucker, Hewitt, Mills, Hurd, Blackburn, Blount, Eaton, Herbert, Kasson, McKinley, Hiscock and Anderson. Some doubt is expressed, however, about the appointment of Anderson of Kansas. One or two of those known to be selected assert that he should be chosen because he is from the same state as Haskell, who would have been a member had he lived. The chairmanship of foreign affairs is not yet determined. Cox and Belmont are still prominently spoken of for the position. Blount says he is entitled to it, as he is the first democrat on the committee of last congress. A number of chairmanships were predicted as follows: Appropriations, Randall; elections, Springer; judiciary, Tucker; banking and currency, Buckner; navy, Hewitt or Morse; military, Rosecrans; American shipping, Dunn; public buildings, Converse; commerce, Reagan; education, Willis; labor, O'Neil; District of Columbia, Barbour; Pacific railroads, Throckmorton; public lands, Blackburn or Cobb; rivers and harbors, Dunn; postoffices and post roads, Money; war claims, Holman; patents, Vance; agriculture, Hatch.

Naval officers: Edwin H. Nevin, Jr., of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia. Jacob E. Fitch of Louisiana, special examiner of drugs, medicines and chemicals, New Orleans.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The bill introduced by Senator Cullom, to establish a board of railroad commissioners to regulate inter-state commerce, provides for the appointment by the president of a board of five commissioners, at a salary of $5000 each, who shall exercise supervision over inter-state commerce, railroads, canals, and other transportation companies, and the commerce of foreign countries, and investigate all complaints made by the railroad commissioners of states, of discrimination in charges made by such transportation companies, in their service as common carriers.

Senator Miller of New York introduced a bill to provide for the repeal of the provisions of the law allowing the use of alcoholic vapor in the manufacture of vinegar, except by a duly authorized distillery.

A BILL BY DOLPH.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Senator Dolph introduced a bill to-day, the draft of which was prepared at the treasury and submitted with a recommendation for its passage, to provide that vessels arriving at ports of entry in the United States laden with coal, salt, railroad iron, and other like articles in bulk, may proceed to such places within that collection district as specially designated by the general regulations, and be unloaded under the supervision of deputy of customs officers at the expense of the parties interested.

UNFOUNDED RUMOR OF ANTHONY'S DEATH.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—There was a rumor in circulation to-night that Senator Anthony had died during the evening. An Associated Press reporter who called at the senator's house at a late hour are informed that Anthony was better than he had been for a week.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The house is discussing the question of granting a month's extra pay to its employes.

THE CHINESE BILL.

Henley Tries to Introduce it Before the Holiday Recess, but is Checkmated.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—[Special.]—Quite an interesting scene occurred in the house this afternoon, over an attempt by Henley of California to introduce the new bill amending the Chinese restriction law, prepared by the Pacific coast delegation. The house voted down the report of ex-Speaker Keifer from the committee on rules, calling for the creation of a select committee on woman suffrage, and prior to adjournment several executive communications were being read and referred, and no one was paying attention to the proceedings. Suddenly Henley arose and addressed the chair, and by previous arrangement Speaker Carlisle at once recognized him.

"In behalf of representatives in the house from three states and two territories, I ask unanimous consent to introduce a bill," said Henley.

In a moment business stopped, and all eyes were turned on the Californian, his request taking everybody by surprise.

Speaker Carlisle said: "The gentleman from California asks unanimous consent to introduce a bill. The bill will be read, when the chair will put the question of unanimous consent."

The clerk read the title, whereupon Willis of Iowa, a republican familiarly known as "Calamity Weller, because he wanted to pay the national debt in greenbacks, sprang into the air and shouted "I [illegible]

Formal Opening of a New Bridge.

CHICAGO, Dec. 19.—Special trains, bearing officials and guests, have left New York and Chicago for Niagara Falls to witness the formal opening of the Michigan Central bridge this forenoon. The structure will be tested by nine engines, weighing 2000 tons. The ceremonies will close by a banquet at the Monteagle House.

SUSPENSION BRIDGE, N. Y., Dec. 20.—The formal opening of the cantilever bridge to-day was a perfect success. Testing its strength was done by running on twenty locomotives and twenty-four cars loaded with gravel, which extended from end to end of the bridge, on both tracks. There was no apparent deflection. Levels were taken at intervals by a committee selected from 400 engineers. Ten thousand people were at the opening. A banquet followed.

Blaine Loses His Hold on New Hampshire.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—[Special.]—The Times' correspondent has interviewed New Hampshire politicians, and the result is this, as epitomized in the Times: Arthur is the popular choice. Blaine evidently has lost his hold upon the hearts of the Granite state republicans, which is a fact ominous for him, since New Hampshire and Maine are similar states and not unlike in their republicanism; but Blaine's strength in New Hampshire was always less real than seeming, for it had no popular basis. He owed to [illegible] Chandler his possession of the New Hampshire delegation in 1880, and now that Chandler served another master, Blaine finds few members of the party in that state who would be willing to call him from his place of literary enjoyment to mingle again in the hurly-burly of politics.

Petroleum Development in Russia.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Fulton Paul, United States consul at Odessa, Russia, has forwarded to the state department a report on petroleum development in Russia, in which he says: "The residuum of the oil is much greater than that found in the United States, and besides being converted into benzine, gasoline and other various useful products, is used as fuel, with a steam jet, on locomotives, and also on steamers on the Caspian sea, the Volga and other rivers; and experiments are in progress to utilize it in new torpedo boats now in course of construction by the Russian navy. The crude oil has been used to sprinkle the streets at Baku, and is much more effectual than water in laying the terrible dust that exists there."

Burial of the Late Representative Haskell.

LAWRENCE (Ks.), Dec. 20.—The burial ceremonies of the late Representative Haskell were held to-day. The body was conveyed to Oak Hill cemetery under escort of De Molay commandery of Knights Templar, followed by an immense crowd. At the grave the exercises were very solemn and impressive, after which the members of the congressional committee took formal leave of Mrs. Haskell, and at 2:30 the party left by a special train for the east.

Advice to Ohio Wool Growers.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—[Special.]—The Commercial Bulletin, reviewing the bill introduced by Representative Converse to replace the old duty on wool, advises Ohio wool growers to learn a lesson from California, which now supplies the knit goods manufacturers of Cohoes, New York, shipping its wool so cheap that it displaced the American product. These mills at Cohoes are now a great competitor to Yorkshire, England.

Suit Against W. H. Vanderbilt.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—[Special.]—A law suit is pending between W. H. Vanderbilt and Frank Work, whose rivalry in fast teams has engendered all their animosity. The Bears Succeed in Elevating the General List—Quotations.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Governments strong. Stocks were strong and higher to-day. Union Pacific was a feature, advancing 1⅞ per cent. to 79¾. The stock moved up on a belief that the directors, at the meeting to-day, would ratify the tripartite agreement. The directors did ratify the agreement, which contains terms of the contract with the St. Paul and the Rock Island companies, and passed a resolution modifying the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy and the Northwestern and Wabash companies to become parties to the contract. It specifies however that the Quincy and Northwestern must pool to adjust the business in Nebraska, west of the Missouri river.

The early rise in Union Pacific led to some buying of the general list, and a consequent advance in Oregon Transcontinental and coal shares. After the official announcement of the ratification of the agreement all once the market declined.

In the afternoon speculation was quiet and steady. After 2 a sharp selling movement began, and a decline followed. Near the close it was rumored that the Northwestern, the Wabash and the Quincy had made application to join the new alliance. This started the shorts to cover, and prices rose ¼ to 2⅝ per cent., the latter Union Pacific, which moved up to 79. Oregon Transcontinental rose to 17¾.

The market closed firm. As compared with last night's closing prices are ¼ to 1⅞ higher. Oregon Navigation dropped 1¾ to 104. Sales were made at 97 seller, 60.

The Oregon Transcontinental Company has applied to the stock exchange for listing $2,000,000 bonds, issued against the deposit of branch line bonds.

MANITOBA'S GRIEVANCES.

The Farmers' Union Demands Redress for the People's Wrongs—Secession Talk.

WINNIPEG, Man., Dec. 20.—The Manitoba and Northwest Farmers' Union resumed discussion for a declaration of rights this morning. Resolutions were adopted and embodied in the declaration as follows:

Whereas, Our present and future prosperity depends upon agriculture, and considering that embarrassing restrictions have been placed upon the efforts of settlers to improve their condition, such as oppressive duty on agricultural implements, monopoly in the carrying trade enjoyed by the Canadian Pacific Railway, and improper administration of public lands.

Resolved, That this association demand the right of the local government to charter a railway in Manitoba; absolute control of public lands, including school lands [illegible] in [illegible] for federal purposes; that the duty on agricultural implements and building materials be removed, and that the customs tariff on articles of daily consumption be greatly reduced; that it is the duty of the provincial government to make such amendment to municipal acts as to empower municipal councils to build elevators, grain warehouses and mills, and to appoint grain inspectors. That union is unanimously of the opinion that the Hudson Bay Railroad should be constructed with the least possible delay.

A motion was introduced to appoint delegates to the Dominion government to submit the demands of this province.

The secession element then showed itself. Stewart moved an amendment to the Dunmore motion, in accordance with the general outline agreed to at the convention, be presented to her majesty the queen, and the privy council, with a view of obtaining a repeal of the British North America act, and forming a new confederacy of northwest provinces and British Columbia.

Colonel Atwood seconded the motion. [Applause.] He urged the importance of going to the foot of the throne, where justice alone could be obtained. [Applause.] He pointed out that the interests of the people of the eastern provinces were totally opposed to ours. We could not expect justice from them. It was no use to go to Ottawa, where the government was controlled by the Canada Pacific railway. The British no longer a nation of shopkeepers, who are ready to extend their trade in all directions, and if we open our portals to them, they will come and deal. He prophesied that the time would come when all present would believe as he did—that the occasion had arrived for a new confederacy. The people of Ontario have no interest with us, and the time has come when we can form a new confederation extending from Lake Superior to the Pacific ocean. [Applause.]

Shaw of Brandon recalled the accession era of a few years ago in British Columbia, which resulted in that province getting better terms. The Hudson Bay route means the cutting away of much of the trade of the Canada Pacific railway, as we have against us all the strength of the eastern provinces, as well as the immense strength of the Canada Pacific railway. He did not think we should plead for our own public lands. They are ours, and we should demand them. He would support the amendment, owing to the success of the precedent of British Columbia.

Mr. Bailey, editor of the Nelson Mountaineer, referred to the opening of the [illegible] and other reserves as the result of [illegible] By the [illegible] other grievances would be redressed as they had been. He said the resolution was good, but would be found ineffective, not effective. If the amendment carried, the convention would be worth less than nothing. [Cries of "No!" The original motion was carried. The union is still in session to-night.

Railroad News and Rumors.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 20.—[Special.]—It appears that the recent agreement, the part of the Northern and the Union Pacific with Oregon, to the issue of tickets east from here, via Portland and over the Oregon Short Line, has been the subject of considerable attention in railroad circles. The interests of railroad have been referred to [illegible] by the various agencies here as violating the agreement made at Topeka. Great concern is manifested in the matter, though no question has [illegible] been [illegible] brought to the notice of the commissioner. There is much [illegible] and [illegible] It is almost impossible to steer clear of railroad rumors of prospective extensions and purchases. One of the most important, though less generally known, is that Jim Fair, at present in Washington, is interesting himself and other capitalists in the purchase of the Northern Pacific Coast railroad. Though the object of the purchase is not apparent, it is said on the subject to be [illegible] your correspondent that though he would not like to be questioned further, the correspondent would be entirely correct in stating that Fair was interested in the purchase of the road. Your correspondent asked if the object of the purchase was preliminary to the purchase of another road known to be on sale, so as to obtain a coast road from the north to the south. "Don't say that, though I know nothing about it beyond what I have told you already," answered the agent man.

Reception to General Hancock.

Five thousand people were present at the Mechanics' pavilion at the reception tendered General Hancock by the people of San Francisco this evening. Hancock was escorted by a detachment of the state militia, a body of federal, state and municipal officials, foreign consuls and a number of prominent citizens from the Palace hotel to the pavilion. The sidewalks between the two places, a distance of a mile, were thronged with people. At 9 o'clock the general entered the hall and marched once around it before being conducted to the grand stand. As he passed by every one of the ladies and gentlemen, with uncovered heads, cheering and waving handkerchiefs and hats. The general returned the compliment by bowing and gently waving his hat. On the grand stand Mayor Bartlett made a brief address of welcome, to which the general briefly returned thanks.

IRELAND.

AMERICA AND IRELAND.

DUBLIN, Dec. 19.—At a meeting of the National League, Mr. Crew Harris, who has recently returned from America, said that Americans don't want a direct movement with Ireland, but only wish the Irish to display energy, and Americans support will be in proportion to the amount of the work done.

GERMANY.

THE CZAR MEETS WITH A HUNTING ACCIDENT.

BERLIN, Dec. 20.—Information has just been received that the czar, while hunting, was thrown from a wagon and injured in the right shoulder. Grave fears [illegible] were entertained, but the Kaiser has received a special telegram that the injury is not serious.

A CONCILIATORY REQUEST.

BERLIN, Dec. 19.—Baron Kuhn has forwarded to Herr Von Gossler, the minister of ecclesiastical affairs, a conciliatory request from the Catholic prelates regarding [illegible] the abrogation of the laws restricting the appointment of vacant curacies.

ITALY.

THE CROWN PRINCE'S MOVEMENTS.

ROME, Dec. 20.—The German crown prince and suite were driven to the depot in state carriages, accompanied by the royal family. The crown prince walked to the carriage with Humbert, where they finally embraced. The crowd at the depot, composed of Germans and Italians, cheered heartily as the royal cortege moved off.

To-night the German prince visited the chamber of deputies, and sat in Bonfigli's box in gallery, where the other deputies and the ministers paid their respects to him. [illegible] left Rome at midnight amid great ovations.

ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION.

ROME, Dec. 20.—The German prince and the members of the Italian royal family attended the theatre this evening and were received with repeated cheers. The prince is greatly praised in appearance on the troupe [illegible]

FRANCE.

[illegible] OF THE [illegible]

PARIS, Dec. 20.—The chamber of deputies has adopted the bill [illegible] a vote of 411 to 2. [illegible] the chamber debated to-day whether a postponement of M. [illegible] resolution the decree permitting the importation of salt pork into France would involve a postponement of the application of that decree. He said the [illegible] brought into France it would have [illegible], and the [illegible] therefore, he responded until the chamber expressed its views on the subject.

[illegible] minister of commerce, replied that the decrees would not be suspended. He said the [illegible] formerly imported to France is a [illegible] Belgium, England and Switzerland without any ill consequences. [illegible] The government had therefore brought the prohibition, which weighed especially heavy on the working classes.

[illegible] gave notice that he had changed his question [illegible] to interpellation and will debate it on Saturday.

CASUS BELLI.

French Troops Capture the Outposts of Sontay—The Chinese Fight Desperately.

HONG KONG, Dec. 20.—The French have captured the principal outposts of Sontay, embracing five strongly fortified villages. The enemy made a stubborn resistance. French lost 200 men and fifteen officers killed and wounded. Admiral Courbet, commanding, had 7000 men—4500 engaged in action and the remainder in reserve. The Chinese still hold the fortress of Sontay.

The principal fighting occurred on the river bank. Several villages were captured at the point of the bayonet. The French advanced within a mile of the citadel, but there will probably be very heavy fighting before they reach the place. The Chinese lost heavily from shells from the fleet.

LONDON, Dec. 20.—A dispatch from Hong Kong states that the fight at Sontay occurred on the 14th. Two outworks were captured, and the citadel surrounded by the French.

PARIS, Dec. 20.—The government has received advices confirming the capture of villages about Sontay.

AFFAIRS AT HUE.

SAIGON, Dec. 20.—According to advices from Hue of the 11th, Gordue was proclaimed king of Annam. The natives are greatly excited, and an attack on the French legation is feared. The firm attitude of Champeaux, the French resident, alone prevented an attack. One hundred and fifty reinforcements have been sent to Hue from Fort Thuanan. It is considered urgent and necessary to occupy Hue with a sufficient force to withstand any attack upon the French. No resistance, however, is expected on the part of the natives.

REINFORCEMENTS FOR TONQUIN.

PARIS, Dec. 20.—Reinforcements of 6000 troops will go to Tonquin in the next fortnight. The government has no information that Sontay is being occupied.

OFFICIALLY CONFIRMED.

PARIS, Dec. 20.—Admiral Peyron, minister of marine, has received the following telegram from Admiral Courbet, dated before Sontay, Dec. 16: The expedition left Hanoi the 11th and captured the Hanan and all the earthworks on the banks of the Red river, opposite Sontay. The enemy is very well armed and resisted desperately. The condition and spirits of the French troops are excellent. To-day we commence to attack Sontay.

[illegible] AND [illegible]

PARIS, Dec. 12.—Le Temps reports that at the weekly reception at the foreign ministry to-day, Marquis Tseng and Prime Minister Ferry had a long and friendly conversation. Le Temps asserts the compromise, mentioned by Figaro as having been proposed by Tseng, has not been imparted to the French government, and it is not known whether such a compromise has been mooted.

CREDIT ASKED FOR [illegible]

PARIS, Dec. 20.—In the senate to-day the supplemental credit bill for 9,000,000 francs for the Tonquin expedition was adopted, 211 to 7. Subsequently the Tonquin credit bill for 20,000,000 francs was also adopted, 215 to 5.

DEBATE [illegible] IN THE SENATE.

PARIS, Dec. 20.—During the Tonquin debate in the senate, Duc de Broglie said he would vote against the credit, because he thought the present Chinese policy was unfortunate, and it was a want of foresight to launch [illegible] against China. France was surrounded by many envious hostile [illegible] a republican form of government, and it behooved her to be prudent at home and abroad. He deplored the senate not to leave a door open to foreign interference.

General Campenon replied that France was strong enough to fight two or three nations, and could easily cope with the latter. New [illegible] despatched to Tonquin accords with that condition, and this confidence were in [illegible] of.

Admiral Jauréguiberry insisted that it her credit [illegible] of China [illegible] of her [illegible] Chinese possessions. If she should attempt [illegible] the war, would embarrass France [illegible] but [illegible]. China will accept France's proposals if she once [illegible]. France was waging a successful war, like that at Sontay, without declaring Chinese ports or touching the treaties [illegible] She refused to be a [illegible] the Red river, France could only gain by [illegible] of Tonquin.

M. de Freycinet urged the government firmly to ask China to withdraw her troops from Tonquin. If she refused, France must insist.

PREMIER FERRY WINS A LARGE MAJORITY.

Premier Ferry said the question was one of vital importance, and one at a critical moment. France could at least pay the expense in two years. The occupation of [illegible] positive evidence. He [illegible] the [illegible] question. He [illegible] troops [illegible] entered the Black Flags, and he did not believe Chinese regulars have [illegible] China is [illegible] regular [illegible] for the acts of the Black Flags. If it were otherwise, it would give rise to more serious conflicts. Our relations with China have not been broken off. We always offered China guarantees of neutrality, but I can not say how what amounts were ere long being done. In regard to the question of a neutral zone, I can say such territory does not exist. No European cabinet has displayed a tendency for [illegible] in regard to the Tonquin affair. The explanations of England and Germany, as [illegible] of their united action to protect the lives and property of Europeans in China is of a loyal and most reassuring character. In conclusion I ask you to vote the credits with the largest possible majority, in order that we may be able to negotiate first and fight afterward, if necessary. The vote was then taken.

"I shall avenge myself by striking everything," said Sarah to her [illegible] "I was [illegible] about my mother, but [illegible] this all [illegible] me." Madame [illegible] went home.

SARAH ATTACKS [illegible] IN THE [illegible]

Sarah then went to Colombier's, Sarah was boiling over with fury, and [illegible] and her friends [illegible] [illegible] who knew [illegible] where a woman's [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] Sarah and found her [illegible] in the face with Colombier [illegible] The two women [illegible] each other, and one like a tigress [illegible] [illegible] her adversary [illegible] she was [illegible] [illegible] Her [illegible] the [illegible] Sarah, who had just arrived [illegible] Sarah, [illegible] the door and [illegible] the throat, Sarah [illegible] [illegible] separate the two [illegible] [illegible] Sarah's [illegible] [illegible]

At last Colombier managed to escape by the servants' way, and actually [illegible] exhausted, but [illegible] in passing through the front door Sarah threw her horsewhip to a servant, [illegible] "Mademoiselle has gave it, but I gave it to Mme. Colombier [illegible]"

PARIS [illegible]

PARIS, Dec. 20.—The extraordinary and dramatic episode of the assault of Marie Colombier remains to be the subject of animated gossip in all quarters. It is now known that Sarah Bernhardt, [illegible] out to avenge her wrongs [illegible] Mlle. Colombier, armed [illegible] with a dagger, which she carried in her belt and which she [illegible] [illegible] Colombier [illegible] attempted at [illegible] but [illegible] escape by the back stairs, but not until her assailant had [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] in [illegible] of such an [illegible] Marie Colombier [illegible]

The appearance of Bernhardt at the theatre to take part [illegible] of the new play, "Nana Sahib," was [illegible] the [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] At [illegible] she [illegible] She was received considerable applause. The general opinion is that the affair [illegible] be [illegible] as to what [illegible] [illegible] M. Richepin, one of Bernhardt's friends, [illegible] a duel. Both gentlemen were present at the fracas. Richepin declined the challenge, and [illegible] published the following: "I have found Richepin [illegible] in the presence of women, and have found him a coward with men."

SARAH IN A NEW PLAY.

PARIS, Dec. 20.—The new play, "Nana Sahib," was produced at the theater Porte St. Martin to-night, with Sarah Bernhardt in the principal role. The house was crowded. A long run is predicted for the piece. Bernhardt's performance was greatly applauded.

Beauty Soap

To keep the pores open, the oil glands and tubes active, and thus furnish an outlet for impurities in the perspiration and blood which cause humiliating blotches, blackheads and minor skin blemishes, especially of infants; to cleanse, whiten and beautify the skin, remove tan, freckles, sunburn and oily matter; to keep the hands soft, white and free from chaps and roughness, prevent contagious skin and scalp diseases, and to provide an exquisite skin beautifier and toilet, bath and nursery sanative, redolent with delicious flower odors and CUTICURA healing balsams, use the CUTICURA SOAP. Endorsed by physicians and chemists as absolutely pure and highly medicinal. Sales in 1881 and 1882, 1,000,000 cakes.

THE HERITAGE OF WOE

Misery, shame and agony, often bequeathed as a sole legacy to children by parents, is neglected Scrofula. To cleanse the blood of this hereditary poison, and thus remove the most prolific cause of human suffering, to clear the skin of disfiguring humors, itching tortures, humiliating eruptions and loathsome sores caused by it, to purify and beautify the skin, and restore the hair so that no trace of the disease remains, CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new blood purifier, internally, and CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP, the great skin cures and beautifiers, are infallible.

HAD SALT RHEUM

In the most aggravated form for eight years. No kind of treatment, medicine or doctors did me any permanent good. My friends in Malden know how I suffered. When I began to use the CUTICURA REMEDIES my limbs were so raw and tender that I could not bear my weight on them without the skin cracking and bleeding, and was obliged to go about on crutches. Used the CUTICURA REMEDIES five weeks, and was completely and permanently cured.

COPPER-COLORED.

I was afflicted with troublesome skin disease, covering almost completely the upper part of my body, causing my skin to assume a copper-colored hue. It could be rubbed off like bran, and at times causing violent itching and the most intense suffering. I have used blood purifiers, pills, and other advertised remedies, but experienced no relief until I procured the CUTICURA REMEDIES, which, although used carelessly and irregularly, cured me, allaying that terrible itching, and restoring my skin to its natural color. I am willing to make affidavit to the truth of this statement.

FRIDA MORNING DEC 21 1883.

THE TARIFF QUESTION

Certain conspicuous democrats, active and retired politicians and well-known business men, have expressed through the New York Herald, their views in regard to the tariff question These views are various as might be anticipated General McClellan and Mr Horatio Seymour both agree tha the question of the tariff is a very urgent one and that the election of Mr Carlisle as speaker has only emphasized it General McClellan thinks that the democrats will have the courage to make it a square issue, and says "If there is any section of the party that calls itself democratic and does not believe in the cardinal principle of democracy—equal taxation—let that section of the party seek a congenial fellowship with the republicans" Mr Hendricks thinks that from present indications the tariff question is likely to become the great issue of the coming campaign, as it is indoubtedly the leading question in the public mind.

But the tone of the business community as indicated by the interviews with Mr E S Jeffray and Mr Alexander B Orr is much more significant than anything the politicians may say Mr Jeffray an old importer and jobber in the dry goods trade has long been known as a radical free trader He admits that one-half the business men in the country have probably no definite opinions on the subject but says there is a strong feeling, steadily spreading, that "protection does not protect, but the reverse" Mr Orr in general affiliations is a republican neither a free trader nor a protectionist While he regards revision and reduction as inevitable, he looks forward to the tinkering of the tariff with great distrust "The heavy duties on iron and woolen goods" he says, "are burdens upon the country which should not be tolerated." "The party that puts raw materials and ships upon the free list will draw an independent vote that will surprise the professional politicians"

There is a powerful element in both parties that would like to confine the approaching presidential contest to an inquest into the past and to a comparison of promises for the future. But there is a large body of intelligent voters who will not be influenced by anything the non-committal politician or the evasive leader may say. They know that the government is taking away more money from the people than it needs or can profitably employ, and that some positive legislation is required to reduce this surplus This can be done only by increasing the expenses of the government, or by lowering the taxes on liquor and tobacco, or abolishing them entirely, and thus necessitating an increase of tariff duties or by the abolition of a certain number of tariff duties The question is a simple one. The intelligent voters understand it very well and they want something done They are tired of training with the politicians who are perpetually marking time without advancing There are obvious differences on this subject within the democratic organization but still the democrats as a party in congress are now committed to a revision and gradual reduction of the tariff. The republicans on the other hand, are committed to a dilatory policy, under the plea that congress ought to wait before making any further changes until the present law has had a fair trial. A considerable portion of business men like Mr Jaffray are convinced of the justice and necessity of nearly complete free trade A much larger and more influential portion, represented by Mr Orr republicans in the past, dreading agitation not free traders, favor a gradual reduction free raw materials and free ships

The republican majority in the federal senate has not made any very important changes in the committees for the present session—and indeed there are only two or three which will attract attention One of these is the appointment of Mr Riddleberger to be chairman of the committee on manufactures in place of Mr Conger a change which it is very difficult to explain upon any known theory of good government, and which is made the more remarkable from the fact that the Virginian is the only new senator, save Messrs Wilson of Iowa and Cullom of Illinois, who is honored with a chairmanship Senators Manderson, Palmer Pike, Dolph, Sabin and Bowen, from the republican states of Nebraska, Michigan New Hampshire Oregon, Minnesota and Colorado get no chairmanships. The other Virginian Mr Mahone, wanted the control of the naval affairs committee and was given instead the chairmanship of public buildings and grounds while Senator Warner Miller succeeds him at the head of the committee on agriculture Senator Lapham remains chairman of the important committee on woman suffrage Owing as much to his strong anti Chinese sentiments as to the fact that he has been put over the heads of several senators of longer experience on the committee some surprise is expressed at the selection of Mr Miller of California as chairman of foreign affairs, but it is not probable that either his views on the Chinese question or his comparative lack of experience will embarrass his service. The retention of Mr Edmunds as chairman of the judiciary and Mr Morrill as chairman of the finance committee, will gratify the people of the whole country while it gives to one of the smallest states in the Union the most powerful voice in the senate

The selection of Senator Sabin of Minnesota to succeed the late Governor Jewell as chairman of the national republican committee excites a feeling similar to the disappointment expressed by the farmer who said his hog "didn't weigh as much as he thought it would, and didn't expect it would" After the republican members of congress had indorsed Keifer, there was no reason to expect much of the committee. Mr. Sabin has made several million dollars as a state prison contractor and member of the state prison ring He knows nothing about national politics and cares nothing for them except as through them he may find the position his money cannot give him. He would never have been thought of for the senate or any prominent office by the people of Minnesota, if he had not been rich, and he must have been selected for this position for the same reason. He does not offer many attractions to all voters who are in favor of elevating and dignifying American labor."

The republicans are not happy with the prospect of having ex-Speaker Keifer for a leader, a man who will be remembered best says the Boston Transcript, as the Ohio man who asked an employe to divide his salary with Keifer's nephew, although the latter made no pretense of performing any duties, and when he refused ordered his discharge and appointed the nephew, so that the latter has drawn $37 0 honestly belonging to the other man and for which the nephew has never done a stroke of work.

Just what Major Sears' sewerage system for this city is we do not know, but this we do know, that some system is badly needed The fever which has recently prevailed in this city is the direct result of our dirty habits Our streets are covered over with filthy and decaying matter and the city is honeycombed throughout with cess pools We must expect a rage of typhoid fever every year till the conditions which cause it are removed

We reprint from the Tacoma Ledger of some days back an interview with Mr Oakes in respect to the things doing and to be done at New Tacoma Certainly the people of that town have the right to feel hopeful

The clergymen of Indianapolis recommend that funerals should be private, that there should be no public exhibitions of deceased people and that ministers should not be required to attend at the grave

LORD TENNYSON

Alfred Tennyson, who has just been elevated to the peerage has been poet laureate of England for thirty-three years He succeeded Wordsworth, who died in 1850 This office has added nothing to his lasting fame though in the line that is recognized as the required work of the place he has done some fine things, like "The Charge of the Light Brigade" the brilliant address to Alexandra of Denmark when she wedded the prince of Wales and the ode on the death of Wellington All these however he might have done as a poet simply But no one of his predecessors has celebrated with as much grace all that is gracious and charming in the old mediæval and feudal civilization In his Arthurian poems he has enshrined the fine conceptions of kingliness and knighthood that have ever been expressed in literature This is the real service which he has paid to royalty He has idealized the whole framework of that system of which the hereditary peerage is the main stay While he has finely expressed many of the spiritual problems of his time as they appealed to the individual he has shown but little interest in the movements to which these problems have given rise in politics and society He has pursued an ideal life into which the business of the advancing world draws little. In the storied and feudal past of England and in taking his place among the representatives of that past by the acceptance of the peerage to which the queen has elevated him he but takes the place to which he is entitled His title will be Baron Tennyson of Aldworth, and this distinction will descend to his eldest son Hallam—the namesake of the beloved Arthur Hallam whose untimely death inspired In Memoriam —who lives with his father and mother He is not possessed of baronial properties, and the queen's objection to making poor men peers appears to have been waived in this case His descendants will be hereditary legislators of the United Kingdom so long as the house of lords exists though it is not likely that Alfred Tennyson will ever take his seat there His rank is merely honorary but it has the additional distinction that he is the only Englishman of letters who has been raised to the peerage solely and avowedly on the score of his literary performances Bulwer earned his barony by political services and Macaulay his by politics quite as much as by literature While it is true as Tennyson wrote years ago, that—

'Tis only noble to be good
Kind hearts are more than coronets,
And simple faith than Norman blood

—the distinction which has now been conferred upon him is neither irrelevant nor superfluous as testifying in behalf of his countrymen the honor in which he is held He is in an eminent and almost exclusive sense the poet of the Victorian age

The senators whose reluctance to support George C Gorham for secretary gained nothing by handling him with such tenderness He is a thoroughly detestable character the defamer of Garfield, the defender of the star route thieves, the supporter of Mahone, and from his position on the National Republican a conspicuous opponent of civil service reform His newspaper would be discreditable in a fast frontier town Still it was something to be thankful for that he was defeated at all The office to which he aspired is worth $4896 a year One of its best incumbents was Asbury Dickens, of North Carolina, a gentleman of such high attainments and character that in all the changes of parties he remained as secretary from 1835 to 1861, when his state went into rebellion Then John W Forney was chosen allowed to resign in 1867 on account of his connection with Andrew Johnson when the California senators got the place for George C Gorham who held on until 1879 and two years ago was nominated again by the republican caucus as the price of Mahone's support but David Davis refused to vote for him and he failed of an election General Anson McCook the present secretary, is well known as one of the family of the famous fighters, McCooks in the war and as an efficient young republican member of congress from New York in the Forty-sixth and Forty-seventh congresses He will make an excellent officer W P Canady of North Carolina who has been chosen sergeant at arms, was formerly collector of customs at Wilmington, and is now editor of the Wilmington Post. He is an ex confederate soldier and is said to be a man of high character James B Young, of Philadelphia the executive clerk is also a newspaper man the owner of one third of the Philadelphia Star

According to the statistician of the National Butter, Cheese and Egg Association whose annual meeting was held at Cincinnati last week the value of those products marketed in the United States during 1883 is more than $10 for every man woman and child in the population not including the $100 000 000 worth of milk and cream sold in a natural state The eggs received in New York annually are worth nearly as much as the cheese half as much as the butter and three times as much as the poultry We export eggs, but we import large quantities from Germany, Denmark and France, and the egg is an altogether larger institution than most intelligent people are aware

Twenty years' experience in the retail drug business on this coast have given us an advantage in knowing the wants and the requirements of the public, and by purchasing Holiday Goods in person, in New York and Boston markets, "many having been made to order," we are enabled to give our patrons something elegant, rather than flimsy and gaudy. This year's selection surpasses any previous efforts, comprising the finest and richest assortment ever before offered in Portland. These goods will not be carried over to form part of Christmas stock of 1884. A word to the wise, etc. Call and see.

[illegible] CHRISTMAS NUMBER.—The Christmas [illegible] of the West Shore is out and is illustrated [illegible] appropriate to the season. One full page [illegible] to the West Shore's Christmas tree, which [illegible] has decorated with presents which [illegible] the places for which they are intended [illegible] feared some of them will [illegible] There are extensive rolling mills for Port[illegible] mechanics' fair for Salem, railroad for Astoria [illegible] Washington territory, 50,000 immi[illegible] for Portland, grain elevator for Seattle and [illegible] Tacoma, 100,000 subscribers for [illegible] and many other equally good things. [illegible] illustration is devoted to Christmas [illegible] One side shows an emigrant [illegible] and the hardy pioneers taking their [illegible] dinner. On the forefoot wagon is the [illegible] or [illegible] sacks [illegible] the ham, frying pan, coffee pot [illegible] give an idea of what the meal consists [illegible] shows the exterior of a palace dining [illegible] P. R. R. with the passengers at dinner, [illegible] turkey, plum pudding, Christmas cake, [illegible] showing how they are dining [illegible] have made the trip in both styles will [illegible] illustration framed as a keepsake. A [illegible] is devoted to "Oregon Winter Sports," elk hunt[illegible] shooting, fishing, sailing, etc., which [illegible] the contrast between our climate and [illegible] One of the prettiest things in the [illegible] picture of a little miss holding a sprig [illegible] over her grandfather's head while she [illegible]. A portrait of the little lassie surrounded [illegible] and a view of the falls of the Sins[illegible] complete the list of illustrations. The [illegible] contains as usual, a number of interesting [illegible] written articles, including an original tale [illegible] of 49 and seasonable poetry.

[illegible] D'ALENE.—The few people who are now [illegible] d'Alene country are evidently making [illegible] to receive the expected rush of pr[illegible] spring. Several bob-sleds and some [illegible] shipped up the [illegible] yesterday to be [illegible] out lumber for stores, restaurants [illegible] mills which will be needed to accom[illegible] expected crowd. The auri sacra fames [illegible] strong in the human race as when the [illegible] sailed from Colchis and it is [illegible] that next spring numbers of our modern [illegible] who bear the scars won on trips to Fraser [illegible] Sand, Stickeen, Carriboo, Skeena [illegible] and even some perhaps who saw "the [illegible]" in its pristine glory, will renew [illegible] by trying Coeur d'Alene. It is to [illegible] that all who have a lucrative business or [illegible] situations will take care that they do [illegible] a substance for a shadow, and if they [illegible] hand in the new excitement let them [illegible] of finding a snug berth to return [illegible] should not favor them. Coeur d'Alene [illegible]

[illegible].—The Vacuum Motor Machine [illegible] yesterday filed supplementary articles of [illegible] in the office of the county clerk. The [illegible] this action is to increase the capital [illegible] making it in all $ [illegible] in 60,000 [illegible] each. The board of directors at their [illegible] held at Corvallis authorized this in[illegible] for the purpose of acquiring by purchase [illegible] inventor, Oswald Sitert, all the right and [illegible] in the invention as soon as it has [illegible] by the United States government [illegible] they propose to sell patent rights [illegible] the motor to propelling machinery of all [illegible]. The company will probably have money [illegible] handle the motor when the stock is all [illegible]. The only trouble about the matter seems [illegible] motor to move. As it is now only expected [illegible] but to propel machinery the trouble [illegible] to be a permanent one.

[illegible] COURT.—James Kelly and J. Farrel for [illegible] were fined $10 each, and Farrel for vile [illegible] language to the officer who arrested [illegible]. Ah Jim, who stole the buck, [illegible] asked if he wanted an examination [illegible] know what to do. He said he had [illegible] and began to wipe his eyes. His distress [illegible] affected Mr. Mulkey as [illegible] the same was [illegible] and the gravity of his crime con[illegible] principally of having stolen it in a dwelling [illegible] fellow was allowed to plead guilty to lar[illegible] was sent up for twelve days. John Sweeney [illegible] blacking a much smaller fellow's eye, was [illegible] J. H. Myers, charged with pulling a pis[illegible] Jake, was allowed to plead to sim[illegible] and fined $15. John McCarthy, charged [illegible] when asked if he desired an [illegible] replied that he did not know what they [illegible] about. His case was continued till [illegible] a vigorous effort will be made to make [illegible] the matter.

[illegible] DELEGATE.—Press of business [illegible] will prevent President Macleay of [illegible] of trade from attending the meeting of the [illegible] board as a representative of the Portland [illegible]. The important charge has been tendered to [illegible] H. Dodd, who has consented to go [illegible] middle of next month. He will at[illegible] convention, and while he is east will co[illegible] with ex-Senator Corbett in efforts to secure [illegible] committee of commerce needed appropri[illegible] the improvement of the Columbia river [illegible] board of trade has worked harder for [illegible] of Oregon than has Mr. Dodd and no [illegible] better informed on questions which have [illegible] the national councils.

[illegible].—Henry Ankeny, who went east with [illegible] excursion, returned yesterday. He has [illegible] spending several weeks at Hot Springs, Arkan[illegible] treatment for rheumatism, from which he [illegible] great sufferer. He is much improved. [illegible] Mrs. R. B. Knapp of this city, Phil [illegible] engineer on the east side, and J. H. Balli[illegible] well known conductor. The latter was [illegible] only a looker on, being in his usual good [illegible] Ankeny says that he train became [illegible] snow storm all the way from Chicago to [illegible] without overtaking it. At Fargo he stepped [illegible] car and found the thermometer six de[illegible] zero, and he concluded not to stop there.

[illegible] TO REASON.—Judge Stott yesterday ex[illegible] petit jury until January 7, 1884. By that [illegible] successor will have been appointed and will [illegible] the pleasant job of listening to the [illegible] counsel and the prevarication of wit[illegible] and the sentencing of the numerous crimi[illegible] brought before him. The new judge will not [illegible] duties till after New Year's, and he will [illegible] to get the business of the court, or [illegible] mind by the time the term commences [illegible] will devote the remainder of his reign [illegible] as practicable the business now be[illegible] court.

[illegible] YEAR.—John Dolan, indicted for at[illegible] yesterday concluded to spare our over[illegible] district attorney a little trouble, and so [illegible] guilty to the charge. He was sentenced to [illegible] in the penitentiary. It may seem that his [illegible] severe one, but it is certainly a just [illegible] only been a short time out of the pen[illegible] where he served two short sentences, he [illegible] upon a fresh career of crime. It was now [illegible] short, and he will not have a chance to [illegible] attempt for some time.

[illegible] OF CRIMINALS.—The grand jury [illegible] adjourn to-day. They have held a [illegible] session, and have about cleaned [illegible] the business on hand. District Attorney [illegible] that the county all comes nearer to be[illegible] persons not under indictment than it [illegible] anytime within three years. This is a very [illegible] state of affairs for Mr. Caples and Dalley [illegible] but it is rough on the penitentiary offi[illegible] don't know where to find room for all [illegible] sent them.

[illegible] OVER A CHILD.—Considerable excitement [illegible] at the corner of Second and Jefferson [illegible] attempt to carry off a child. A man, [illegible] the father of the child, seized it and [illegible] down the street. A woman, evidently the [illegible] of the child, ran after him, shrieking and [illegible] under such circumstances. The [illegible] heavy, the man was handicapped and [illegible] down and forced to surrender the cause of [illegible] which was borne off in triumph by the [illegible]

[illegible].—Articles of incorporation of the [illegible] Drug company were filed in the office [illegible] county clerk yesterday. The incorporators [illegible] Howell, E. P. Fraser and Frank P. O'Brien [illegible] to do a general wholesale and retail [illegible] and to deal in liquors, oils and paints. [illegible] stock is placed at $ [illegible]. The duration [illegible] corporation is limited to twenty years.

SURRENDERS HIMSELF.

A Self Accused Swindler Gives Himself Into the Custody of Sheriff Sears.

A stranger called at the office of Sheriff Sears yesterday, and stayed there some time without at[illegible] to transact any business, although by his actions it was evident that he was there for some purpose. After a time the office was cleared, and the stranger approached Sheriff Sears and said he wished to surrender himself. As he was a respectable and intelligent appearing man, the sheriff looked at him a moment in surprise and then asked him what he had been doing. He said that a year ago, while in business in Dakota, he had sold some property which had a mortgage on it and [illegible] thereon [illegible] the purchaser out of about $ [illegible]. He left Dakota immediately after the transaction and had been wandering ever since in search of some place where he could be safe from justice. But every where he went he met some one who knew him [illegible] Dakota, and he lived in constant dread of being apprehended by the officers of justice. [illegible] THE OREGONIAN of the three men [illegible] who were captured a few days ago [illegible] the stables of Mr. Hood [illegible] was the attempt to evade the law, and having since [illegible] reading it, [illegible] the stranger [illegible] who had known him [illegible] his fears of arrest became so [illegible] he determined to [illegible] himself up. He gave the name of [illegible] Schaum. He was taken in charge and Sheriff Sears sent a dispatch last night to see whether the man was wanted on such a charge as he preferred against himself. In days gone by a man who had committed a crime might hope to hide in [illegible] wild west, but in these days of railroads and telegraphs a criminal is liable to run across [illegible] the most remote spot to [illegible] the United States. The only safe hiding place is in the center of Asia or Africa and there is [illegible] life in those places. The safest thing is to always act on the square.

BRIEF MENTION.

Langrishe matinee to-morrow.

Orchestral Union concert to-night.

The Brunswick Social Club will give a phantom dance January 2.

Work is begun on the improvements in the city jail authorized by the common council.

[illegible] St. David's Episcopal church [illegible] Portland for a Christmas [illegible]

[illegible] yesterday amputated the leg of C. D. Wilson, who was [illegible] badly crushed near The Dalles a short time since.

Professor F. F. Merrill, the bicyclist, and William [illegible] together with the champion skater, will give exhibitions during the coming week in the valley. See them.

A gentleman over from Tacoma yesterday reports that C. C. Cronin, who was about in an attempt to kill his family, has taken a turn for the worse and is again confined to his room.

The will of the late W. D. Taylor was admitted to probate yesterday. He leaves one dollar to each of his children and the remainder of his property amounting to about $3000 to his wife, Alida J. Taylor.

Herman Steinburg, who has been a resident of this city for a long time, died lately at St. Vincent's hospital. He willed all his property, consisting of a house and lot, to the hospital, in return for the kind usage shown him there.

Complaint comes from Tillamook of irregularity in mail matters. The trouble is in the postoffice at North Yamhill. Serious inconvenience has been caused by delay in the transmission of letters and somebody is evidently to blame.

A handsome and commodious desk has been furnished to A. J. Marshall, clerk of the state circuit court. There is room at it sufficient to allow half a dozen reporters to bother him at once, and he is therefore happy. THE OREGONIAN's court reporter will however take care not to be one of the half dozen who collect there at one time.

AMUSEMENTS.

LANGRISHE.—"Self" was repeated to a large audience last night. "Father and Son" and "A Gentleman from Ireland" will be given to-night. [illegible] to-morrow night, and at matinee to-morrow. The company leave for Puget sound to-morrow.

BENEFIT.—Sunday night a complimentary concert will be tendered to Amos D. Arnold at New Market theater by the combined variety talent of Portland.

KATIE PUTNAM.—Christmas week attraction at New Market is Katie Putnam and company in an attractive repertoire. Of a recent performance in Salt Lake, the Tribune says: "A large audience assembled last evening to witness the fourth and final performance of the Katie Putnam company. The play presented was the [illegible] comedy taken from the opera of the same name, entitled 'The Child of the Regiment.' Miss Katie Putnam [illegible] [illegible] style and charming [illegible] was all that could be desired, and, judging from the hearty laughter induced [illegible] by the audience, her impersonation of the frank, sincere and light hearted [illegible] of the regiment was thoroughly appreciated. The support throughout was good."

THE DREDGE INVESTIGATION.

The dredge investigation committee held their third session last night, all members being present.

R. G. Coombs, being sworn, testified: Was appointed superintendent of the city dredge while it was under construction; paid attention to it to the dredge [illegible] the middle of August last. Judge Adams came to me and [illegible] a long conversation [illegible] [illegible] whether I would accept the superintendency [illegible] the dredge [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible]

In answer to the question as to whether Honeyman had [illegible] witness said [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

Have been a machinist for thirty years. [illegible] the dredge machinery was built in accordance with the specifications that Capt. Honeyman in the main complied with all the specifications of the [illegible] contract, think he did not altogether fill the contract, think there should have been a [illegible] engine and steam capstans so as to move [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] The dredge was not ready for service when turned over to the city because there were not all the appliances for handling and moving [illegible] [illegible]

Was superintendent when the machinery was put in; think I received a [illegible] job. [illegible] [illegible]

In answer to the question whether he had acted for the dredge in behalf of the city, witness [illegible] [illegible]

Chairman Coles here asked witness whether he had not written to San Francisco. Witness presented a letter [illegible] [illegible] Capt. Honeyman and Captain [illegible] [illegible] that this dredge was the perfection of dredges [illegible] had the experience of twenty years [illegible] all previous [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] and the city were liable for damages [illegible] of their patents.

The letter was handed to the committee [illegible] [illegible] There will probably be no meeting until after the Christmas holidays.

RAILROAD NOTES.

MEETING OF PASSENGER REPRESENTATIVES.

CHICAGO, Dec. 20.—Representatives of the passenger departments of the St. Paul, the Rock Island, the Burlington and Alton roads met here to-day to consult on steps to secure the sale of tickets to Missouri river points at equal advantages to those given the Northwestern and the Wabash lines, by order of Vice Commissioner Pierson of the trunk lines, permitting the latter to sell tickets from New York to the Missouri river, by the Northwestern and Wabash, at a reduction of $4 from the tariff. The representative of the Burlington stated that while the object of the meeting met the approval of his line, its relations toward the Rock Island and the St. Paul, owing to the tripartite agreement, were such that he could not take formal action with them. No action was taken beyond a decision to adjourn from day to day till the tripartite difficulty is settled. In the meantime it is generally understood that the roads represented in the meeting are selling tickets to the Missouri river, through New York, at $3, a cut of $5 85.

THE TRIPARTITE ALLIANCE IN CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Dec. 20.—A rumor on the stock exchange, reported from New York, to the effect that the Northwestern, the Wabash and the Burlington have applied for admission to the tripartite alliance is fully credited by railway men here as to the first two, because their representatives in the board of directors in the Union Pacific voted for ratification. General Manager Potter of the Burlington road says his line will act on the defensive as far as rate-cutting is concerned. Until it definitely knows the terms of the agreement he is not prepared to say whether it will accept it or not. If its terms are as made public, he does not see how war can be avoided. He feels sure of the co-operation of the Denver and Rio Grande, and probably that of the Topeka and Santa Fe. It is said that the Burlington will at once push to completion its cut-off from Kenteswa to Oxford, of which twenty-two miles remain to be built. This, it is said, will shorten the route and save an hour and a half in the running time.

THE TRIPARTITE AGREEMENT UNANIMOUSLY ADOPTED.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—At the directors' meeting of the Union Pacific company this morning, President Dillon was in the chair. F. F. Ames, C. F. Adams, E. H. Baker, F. G. Dexter, S. H. H. Clark, M. M. Dodge, A. H. Green, John Sharp, A. Schell, Jay Gould, Salon Humphreys, and government directors Bromley, Conger, Perrish, Haven and Hoyt were present. The tripartite agreement was unanimously adopted. Resolutions were adopted instructing General Manager Clark to invite other roads to enter the new alliance. Adjourned.

THE ORIGIN OF VILLARD'S WEALTH.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—[Special.]—The Sun, which eulogized Villard, says to-day: "A private dispatch from a London financier says the origin of Villard's wealth consisted of some $200,000 which a brother of Sir Wilfred Lawson entrusted to him for investment in solid American securities. Villard, as agent for the Wisconsin Central securities, is said to have sunk the whole amount in them. A lawsuit was instituted which only recently has been settled."

It is a significant fact that the World and the Morning Journal, alleged to be partly owned by Gould, are most virulent in abuse of Villard.

WHY SIMS IS ANGRY.

ST. PAUL, Dec. 20.—[Special.]—A former official of the Northern Pacific says: "The bitterness of Sims' statement in New York about Villard is due to the fact that he lost everything he had by the decline of Northern Pacific securities."

ANOTHER LINE FROM PORTLAND TO CHICAGO.

DUBUQUE, Dec. 20.—The 5 per cent. tax was carried by a large majority, to aid in the construction of the Dubuque and Northwestern railroad, from Bismarck to Dubuque, and thence to Chicago, which will be the shortest line from Portland, Oregon, to Chicago.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST.

Washington Territory.

Walla Walla Union: On Monday afternoon a soldier named Cameron tried to shoot a girl named Lizzie Roach as she was stepping out of the garrison school. Cameron was jealous of the girl, and being under the influence of liquor, the green-eyed monster took possession of him. Cameron now languishes in durance vile, where he can repent of his hasty act at leisure.

Seattle Post-Intelligencer: From a reliable source we learn that Mr. Otis Sprague of Tacoma has again been appointed superintendent of the Pacific division of the Northern Pacific railroad. Mr. Sprague for several years held the same position in the company's service, but about a year ago was succeeded by H. de Raasloff. The latter gentleman has resigned and Mr. Sprague has been appointed to succeed him.

Barney Phelan, a workman on the Green river extension, had his leg crushed yesterday morning by a falling log. He was removed to Seattle, and is now lying at the hospital in a very critical condition. In order to save his life it will be necessary to amputate the limb, and this the patient steadfastly refuses to have done. Phelan is 61 years of age, and served in the United States navy during the Mexican war.

D. Kelling of Walla Walla has received the result of an assay made by Thomas Price, the well known mineralogist of California, on ore taken from the Morning Glory mine, situated on Granite creek, Baker county, Oregon, in which Mr. Kelling has a large interest. The assay is: Gold $26 87, silver $481 39; total, $508 26. Other assays were made in New York, Chicago and Canada, and they all proved higher grade ore than sent to Mr. Price.

Montana.

A petition for the pardon of Thomas Keefe, convicted at Miles City in 1882 of highway robbery and now undergoing sentence in the territorial penitentiary, was recently presented to the governor, the case carefully inquired into and the clemency of the executive refused.

Engineer Beckler, in charge of the Bozeman tunnel, reports to Colonel Dodge progress to the extent of seventy-eight feet, including timbering, during the past week. This is an extraordinary piece of work for the time stated. At this rate of advancement the tunnel will be opened through the mountain by the end of the present week, or at the furthest by Christmas day. Following this there will be some trimming work to be finished and the tunnel bed to be leveled up. Colonel Dodge expects trains to be admitted through the tunnel not later than January 10.

The friends of Frank Young, convicted of murder and now in the Bozeman jail awaiting the carrying out of the sentence of death, have appealed from the decision of Governor Crosby, who refused to reprieve him, to President Arthur, and the case is now being investigated by the department of justice. The president's action will probably be determined by such opinion in the matter as the attorney general submits to the executive.

Idaho.

William Gordon, who has been at work in the Big Lode mill, at Atlanta, while throwing the belt off the driving wheel, using a bar for the purpose. The bolt where it was spliced caught the bar, throwing it out of his hands and into the driving wheel, and was thrown back against him, hurting him very seriously but not fatally.

Wood River News Miner, 19th inst.: News reached here last evening that a shooting scrape occurred late yesterday afternoon at Kuna. The particulars are very meager, none of the names being yet learned. It appears that an Italian shot an American. Both were employed on the work train now stationed in that vicinity. At 5 o'clock last evening the citizens had a rope around the Italian's neck, and were preparing to launch him into eternity, but others interfered and quieted them down. The American was alive at last accounts.

Tuesday night the locomotive Alki ran over a man who was lying across the track and killed him instantly. The accident occurred in Renton, just opposite the Renton house. An inquest was held upon the body yesterday, which developed the following particulars: That the name of deceased was Bradbury Whitesker; that he was a coal miner by trade, an Englishman by birth, a native of Lancashire, England; that he was 36 years of age and has a family in Fulston, Beaver county, Pa. He came to his death by being intoxicated and run over by a backing train while lying on the railroad track. No blame can be attached to any one, as the night was dark and foggy.

The Tacoma Ledger of the 20th contains the following particulars of a fearful casualty: A frightful accident occurred last night at Hanson's mill, which resulted in the instantaneous death of Peter Jansen. Jansen has been employed at the mill for the last five years, and he latterly occupied the position of foreman. Last night, between 6:30 and 6 o'clock, he was on the second floor of the mill and had occasion to go below to lace the belt that runs the sawdust carrier. Just what occurred below will never be ascertained, for upon some of the men descending, they found fragments of Jansen's body scattered all over the mill. It is conjectured that Jansen, upon attempting to pass the belt, got caught by it and was carried over the shaft with frightful rapidity, the shaft at the time making 1000 revolutions a minute. He was torn limb from limb and his body severed in two and mangled in a frightful manner. The shaft, which is three inches in diameter, was twisted like some fine wire, and some timbers 8x8 inches were smashed into splinters. Pieces of his body were found scattered in all parts of the mill. The Ledger reporter went down to the mill last night and found that Jansen's remains had been collected and placed on some boards and covered with a rough sail cloth. The sight presented was a ghastly and sickening one, the head and shoulders were mangled, but could still be recognized. A coroner's inquest will be held on the remains this morning by Dr. Bostwick, after which the funeral will take place. Jansen leaves a wife and family to mourn his loss.

PRESS PITH.

Sergeant Bates is tramping along from Chicago to Savannah. His son carries the flag. The sergeant lectures and carries the jaw.

In a recent lecture it is said that Matthew Arnold lifted his eye glasses twenty-nine times. He was evidently watching his audience as they passed out.

The president's message is ominously silent upon the season's fishing, and not one word is put down indicative of any gratitude for veracity with which the trout and bass took the presidential bait.

FORTY YEARS' EXPERIENCE OF AN OLD NURSE.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP is the prescription of one of the best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhœa, griping in the bowels, and wind-colic. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. Price Twenty-five cents a bottle.

TRADE AND COMMERCE.

THURSDAY, Dec. 20.

Other than a fair movement for the season in the produce lines, there is next to nothing to report. Values show very little change as compared with last week, and some lines are in slower sale. Receipts generally have not been so heavy and the next three weeks are expected to show little of interest. General trade is larger than usual just at this time, and overland receipts show up well. They include a liberal quantity of salt fish, provisions and table groceries. Ocean freights are correspondingly dull and constantly decreasing. Competition is necessarily more keen in several lines as the country has been extensively drummed by travelers for eastern houses.

The event of the week has been the change of presidents of the Transcontinental and O. R. & N. Companies. This was announced Monday, and Tuesday witnessed a material rise in those stocks, which has since given way to a decline, and quotations while generally lower than for last Thursday, to-day almost touch the lowest figures for the week.

Overland receipts include 60 bxs dried apples, 76 cs yeast cakes, 1 sk seed, 5 sks nuts, 56 bbls cranberries, 10 caks prunes, 1 bbl meal, 8 qr 4 hf 12 kits pig's feet, 10 cs maple sugar, 200 cs canned[illegible], 5 bls bagging, 20 cs pickles, 30 tubs 6 cts butter, 1 tub maple syrup, 4 kits mackerel, 1 cs codfish, 2 cs confectionery, 6 cs milk, 165 cs canned goods, 25 bbls currants, 50 cs 500 kgs syrup, 32 pkgs tobacco.

EXPORTS—Per str Queen of the Pacific: 815 ctls wheat, 400 qr sks Lafayette 164 hf 152 qr sks Colfax flour, 4 bxs apples, 1750 lbs wool, 683 sks potatoes, 13 bls deerskins, 34 dry 210 green hides, 20 bls sheepskins, 2 cs cassimeres, 111 flannels, 12,700 ft maple, 3350 ft ash, $19,517 treasure.

PRODUCE RECEIPTS—Past 24 hours: 1675 ctls wheat, 1164 bbls flour, 253 ctls oats, 101 ctls millstuff, 44 sks potatoes, 200 lbs wool, 565 lbs hides, 35 cs eggs, 145 bxs fruit, 6 pkgs butter. Also 12,121 ctls wheat, 930 bbls flour, 4053 lbs hides from the eastern section.

Receipts for past seven days have been:

	Valley.	Eastern.

FREIGHTS—For the week no arrivals are reported and no spot engagements. Several vessels have finished and got away, including the Ice King in salmon for London. Rumors of the chartering of a wooden ship for lumber to Rosario can not as yet be confirmed. Exactly what rate tonnage is holding for cannot be reported, but the difference between owners and operators who would secure shippers is about 2s 6d. Possibly 42s 6d for barely iron for wheat would be accepted by disengaged vessels, but present appearances would indicate business at this rate impossible. From in port actually disengaged consists of two vessels, the Brenda and Janet McNeil. Wolden still holds aloof, and appear to have determined upon waiting until spring. At San Francisco much the same situation obtains, but new freight engagements miscellaneous freights.

TONNAGE STATEMENT.

In port—Chartered for grain	17,497
Loaded miscellaneous	1,198
Disengaged	11,591
Ready for sea	2,525
Total in port	[illegible]
On way—Due Dec.-Jan.	6,622
Due Jan.-Feb.	4,113
Due later on	8,076
Total on way	18,811

WHEAT—Receipts for the week aggregate 115,323 centals, against 11,574 centals last week. The gain is made by two or three large arrivals of Walla Walla, on account of old purchases. Half the engaged fleet will fill up the coming week and nearly all will be cleared by the turn of the year. As far as shippers are concerned the situation is a comparatively easy one, the needs of a very few being easily met by holdings of the others. Spot business is thus mainly confined to this class of purchasers and offerings on this market do not meet with much encouragement. Walla Walla is still quoted $1 70 on wharf and valley $1 77½, with millers paying a shade advance for choice at Interior points. The Willamette river has fallen so that river navigation is interfered with. Foreign markets have shown a weak front with cargo sales next to impossible even at quotations. As compared with previous years, a very small proportion of the cargoes floated from this river have been sold.

FLOUR—Receipts for the week, 20,415 barrels, against 16,805 last week. More has gone into ship, but less to San Francisco, and the week shows an accumulation. Stocks are quite large, but local values show no change. For shipment the market is extremely dull and unpromising, there being no demand for cargoes. We quote standard brands at $5 50, less usual trade discount. Oregon and Walla Walla quoted in San Francisco at $4 75@4 85 from wharf.

MILLSTUFF—Receipts of all kinds for the week were 2292 centals, against 1724 last week. The eastern section is sending none at present. Stocks are somewhat reduced, but are still more than ample for requirements. Values from first hands are weak. Jobbing values fairly steady at $18@20 for bran, $22 50 for shorts and $25@30 for middlings. Ground barley jobbing at $27@30.

OATS—Receipts show a falling off of 1751 ctls as against last week and are very small, yet stocks move slowly and it is almost impossible to secure an advance on 38c.

POTATOES—Receipts quite even with the market and rather slow. Choice bring 60c, while ordinary continue to sell down to 50c.

HOPS—A dull and inactive market rules, with asking prices still reported to be 20c. Buyers are doing next to nothing, and some have left. No new features are apparent, with nothing looked for this month. A private dispatch yesterday reports a small week's trade in London, trade being confined to small parcels for immediate requirements. Waterville quotes choice scarce and firm at 25½c.

WOOL—Receipts since April 1st have been 1,412,227 lbs valley and 7,321,856 lbs eastern. At present very little is coming in, and there is next to nothing doing. We quote valley at 15@17c and eastern 14@17½c, and nominal.

HAY—Baled timothy quoted $20, with supplies fairly liberal. No loose coming in.

PROVISIONS—We quote Oregon choice hams 15@16c; best eastern, 18@19c; bacon, 11½@12½c; shoulders, 11@12; eastern lard in pails, 12½@13c; local in tins, 12½@13; in kegs and 40-lb tins, 11@12c. Country cured meats in slower sale because of large eastern offerings which compete with considerable success. For the general trade these grades are in good movement, but city dealers find choice local cured is demanded.

CHEESE—A choice article of local will bring 19@20c; eastern, 17@19c.

DRIED FRUITS—We quote sun dried apples, 9@10c; Plummer dried apples in boxes, 10c; plums, 10c; Oregon prunes, 12c. German prunes, 10c; peaches, 13@14c; pears, nominal, 10@12½c; California figs, 9c; raisins, $2 per box, with usual advance for fractions.

APPLES—Values range from 75c to $1 25, as to quality and kind.

HIDES AND SKINS—Market steady at 6@7c for green and 14@14½c for dry.

POULTRY—Receipts large with good request. By express yesterday 37 coops were received. To-day's selling prices are: Chickens, $3 50@4 50; geese, $9@10 50; ducks, $8@9; turkeys, $15@17.

BUTTER—Considerable common packed in market at 20@25c. Iowa dairy selling at 40c. Choice fresh roll in small movement at 40@45c, the inside quotation being most general.

EGGS—Fresh local, 45c; eastern 35@40c.

APPLE BUTTER—Salem factory held at 15c per pound.

The Merchandise Market.

General movement good, and values are without quotable change. The recent decline in cordage was due to supplies of eastern. San Francisco has two factories, and Portland one. These are fully able to supply the coast trade, at which eastern factories cast longing glances. The American sugar refinery has closed down to await the new crop, and the California refinery is supplying all demand. The latter have not done much with their new refinery, but with the arrival of new crops, expect to operate it.

BAGS AND TWINE—We quote: Grain bags, 12c; 36 in. Calcuttas, spot, 7@7½c; wool bags, [illegible]; [illegible]; fleece twine, [illegible]; sewing twine, 35@40c.

SUGARS—Quotations are: (A) patent cube, 10¼c; (A) crushed, 10¼c; powdered, 11¼c; dry granulated, 10¼c; ex golden C, 9¼c; golden C, 9c. Quotations represent barrels; halves and boxes, ¼c advance. Island in kegs, 8@8½c; D in bbls, 8¾c.

BEANS—Values quite firm at 3c for butter, bayos and pinks, and 3¼c for small whites.

BREAD, ETC.—Quote: Pilot, 6@6½c; ship, 5½@6c; soda crackers, 8½@9½c; other crackers, biscuits and cakes, 9@15c as to kind.

CANNED GOODS—Dealers quote: Assorted fruits, $2 75; pie peaches, $2@2 25; table peaches, $2 40@2 75; assorted pie fruits, 2½'s $1 75, gallons $4 75; tomatoes, 2½'s $1 20; gallons $3 75@4; corn, $1 60.

COAL OIL—A good request is had, and best brands are firm at 26@27½c; others 23@24c.

COFFEE—Java quoted 20@22c; Rio and Costa Rica, 14@15c, and firm.

SALT—We quote fine Liverpool at $17, $18, and $20 as to containers and coarse California, $10 50@12 50.

RICE—Quoted at $5 50; mixed China $1 75@2 25.

PICKLES—Quotation for keg, $1 00.

The Meat Market.

Quotations represent rates paid by slaughterers to raiser, for whole carcasses. A good request is had for choice for the holiday trade, and city butchers are arraying their stalls in most attractive manner.

BEEF—First quality quoted, 4@4½c gross.

VEAL—Quoted large, 9c; small, 10c.

MUTTON—Wethers, gross, 2¾@3c. Dressed from Jak and has been received by Abraham, Hirsch & Co., [illegible] at 5c. Lambs, $1 50@2 25.

PORK—Dressed, 5½@6½c; live, 4 4@5c.
